

FALL 2017 DU ASCENSION PACIFIC NORTHWEST PROSPECT CAMP: GRADUATING CLASS OF 2019-2021 PLAYERS

POWERED BY LXTC LACROSSE

The DU Ascension Pacific Northwest Prospect Camp gives athletes, boys and girls, an opportunity to be coached directly by the DU coaching staff and other college coaches while competing against some of the best players from your area. This camp provides athletes exposure to top collegiate coaches, as well as high-level instruction. During the camp, athletes participate in skill sessions, team practices and games, as well as participate in a recruiting seminar where all your general questions regarding the NCAA recruitment process may be answered.

The camp is built specifically for top-level Class of 2019-2021 prospects. In the last 3 years, Ascension camp athletes have committed to top-level institutions, including Denver, Princeton, Georgetown, Villanova, Notre Dame, Boston U, Brown, Fairfield, Michigan, Hofstra, Holy Cross, Loyola, Bellarmine, High Point, Marist, Sacred Heart, & Manhattan.

There is no better way to be seen directly by the Denver staff. Other collegiate programs will be in attendance as well.

This camp is small by design, to ensure optimal competition and instruction. There is a limited number of spots. The boys portion of the camp will run Saturday, October 28th and the girls portion will be Sunday, October 29th. Sign up now.
